Mange japanske forfattere har sværmet for vestlig civilisation og har foretaget kortere eller længere rejser til Vesten, men disse "pilgrimsrejser" til den vestlige kultursfære fører som regel til en endnu stærkere tilbagevenden til "ægte" japanske værdier, både åndeligt, socialt, kulturelt og æstetisk. Return to Japan beskriver 17 moderne forfatteres åndelige eller fysiske rejser fra og til Japan og ser disse rejser i sammenhæng med en japansk søgen efter identitet i moderne tid. Bogen vil være værdifuld for alle som interesserer sig for japansk tænkning og litteratur og for dem som studerer forbindelser mellem Japan og Vesten.
